

Shoshana Shier Lectures

Marc Epstein

Shoshana Shier Distinguished Visiting Professor
Professor of Religion, Vassar College

“Jews and Art: The Uneasy Relationship” A Three-Part Lecture Series

Monday, September 22 at 4:00pm

“How Jews Made Art in spite of the Second Commandment—and Why it Matters”

Jackman Humanities Building, Room 100, 170 St. George Street

Monday, September 29 at 4:00pm

“Messages of Protest and Dreams of Subversion: Political Dimensions of Art Made for Jews”

Jackman Humanities Building, Room 100, 170 St. George Street

Monday, October 6 at 4:00pm

“Illuminating the Personal: Patronage and Program in Art Made for Jews”

Jackman Humanities Building, Room 100, 170 St. George Street

This lecture series is free and open to the public. No registration required.

Centre for Jewish Studies
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

מרכז למדעי היהדות

www.cjs.utoronto.ca

facebook.com/cjsuoft

@cjsutoronto

#JewishStudiesTO